

文科省2020年度SDGs達成の担い手育成 (ESD) 推進事業
『屋久島における「木を見て森も見る」SDGs思考養成実践モデル事業』

Call for Travel Awards

UNESCO SDGs School in Yakushima (11-15 September 2020)

THE GRAUDATE SCHOOL OF ADVANCED INTEGRATED STUDIES IN HUMAN SURVIVABILITY (GSAIS, SHISHU-KAN) AND THE UNESCO CHAIR WENDI ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS

APPLICATION DUE: 20 JULY (MONDAY) 2020 17:00 JST

[The Program] This program sponsored by Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology (MEXT) aims at providing opportunities for Graduate /Undergraduate Students to strengthen the holistic capacities as humans, researchers, and/or social entrepreneurs, by learning natural/social/human linkages through the fieldwork and collaborative works in Yakushima and the UNESCO Chair WENDI professors from different graduate schools in Kyoto University. Major characteristics of the Program are:

1. The Program is designed for the students to the holistic capacities to engage in implementing Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) for better future, well-being, and resilient society.
2. Students who are interested in working on SDGs with different people collaboratively are especially welcomed to the Program.
3. All sessions in the Program (fieldwork and workshops) will be held in English.
4. The major travel funding including transportation fee from Kyoto to Yakushima and within Yakushima, accommodation fee, plus some logistic fee will be provided through the University by the MEXT fund. You will be requested to commit yourself to all required through this Program.
5. When you completed the Program by engaging in all required activities, a Certificate will be provided.

[Who to Apply]

Any graduate or undergraduate student from any school

Access the application form

<https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSciTaXFJNdnvRL0Is4OG9exDK0kF6kSTIjR5A4-ITFmoHBssg/viewform>

[How to Apply]

You need to fill in your information and write your short essay.

Twenty students will be accepted for this call. If the applications exceed the numbers, we will select the application based on the essay.

We will inform you the selection results by the end of July.

[How to be Selected][Any Question]

Send your question to shishukanresilience@gmail.com